Weekend at a glance

Friday (7:05) NJB def. SOM 3-2; Mazzaro 5.0 IP, 2 H, 2 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 5 K (W); Three-run 4th inning provides difference; Martini 1-for-3, 2B, 2 RBI

Saturday (7:05) NJB [LHP] Brandon Liebrandt (0-0, 1.29 ERA) @ SOM [RHP] Mark Leiter Jr. (0-0, 1.00 ERA)

New Jersey Blasters

WHAT'S A BLASTER: The name "Blasters" derives from old home run calls by longtime New York Yankees broadcaster Mel Allen, who would often times emphasize a home run as a "blast"

BIG BAD JON: The Blasters are managed by record-setting Atlantic League closer and current Somerset Patriots pitching coach/director of baseball operations Jon Hunton. This marks "Big Jon's" first professional experience as a manager.

FORMER PATS: RHP Vin Mazzaro appeared in three games with the Patriots in 2017, while outfielder Zach Racusin made his professional debut with the Patriots in 2017

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS: The Blasters have won each of the first three Friday night games in the SPBS. Each time, one big inning has provided the difference. New Jersey posted a four-run third inning on 7/17 and 7/24, while a three-run fourth inning on 7/31 helped lead the team to a win.

MAZZARO MOWS: RHP Vin Mazzaro became the first starting pitcher in the SPBS to earn a win thanks to a strong 7/31 start. The former MLBer carries a 2.25 ERA over his first three starts (all Blasters wins) and leads the series in strikeouts (14).

A TASTY MARTINI: Louie Martini continues to lead the SPBS in RBI (5) through the first five games. He has reached base safely multiple times in three of his first four games and is the only player in the series to reach base safely in all five games.

CRANFORD STAND UP: LHP Ryan Williamson has shined out of the bullpen thus far. The three-time state champion at Cranford H.S. has appeared in four of the first five games of the series. He worked two perfect, scoreless innings of relief, earned a win and struck out five of the six batters he faced in week 1. He then struck out six-straight batters over two innings of relief and earned a win on 7/24 before recording his first save on 7/31. 12-of-the-15 outs he has posted thus far (and 12-of-18 batters he's faced) have been strikeouts over his five innings.

#1 OVERALL: Infielder Martin Figueroa marked the first overall selection for the Blasters in a pre-season draft of eligible SPBS players. "Figgy" became the second player in the SPBS to reach base four times in the same game when he achieved the feat on Friday, July 24. His strong Week 2 continued on 7/25 with a 2-for-3 game including an RBI double. Figueroa reached base safely in six of his seven plate appearances in the past weekend.

Somerset Patriots

FIRST IN STATE: When Patriots' RHP David Kubiak threw the first pitch of Friday, 7/17's game, it marked the start of the first professional baseball game in the state of New Jersey in 2020.

THE JODIE FILE: The Patriots are managed by returning skipper Brett Jodie. Jodie is entering his 8th year as manager of the team and his 17th overall season with the organization. The former Yankee owns a 556-405 record over his first seven years

SIGNATURE SIX: There are six players on the current Patriots roster that played on the team in 2019: David Kubiak, James Pugliese, Nate Roe, Taylor Wright, Scott Kelly and Justin Pacchioli. That accounts for 35.3% of the active roster.

SPEED DEMONS: Two of the returning players, Kelly and Pacchioli, currently rank among the top four basestealers in franchise history. Kelly ranks third with 114 career stolen bases, while Pacchioli lists 5th with 112 steals. Michael Warner is next on the list to pass with 120 stolen bases

THE LONE AFFILIATE: Patriots catcher Matt O'Neill marks the only player in the SPBS that remains under contract with a Major League club. The Seton Hall Prep graduate was a 20th round draft pick by the New York Mets in 2019.

DUECES WILD: The Patriots have scored exactly two runs in each of the five games so far. Both of their wins came in their last at-bat, each time also capping off a come-from-behind win.

REINFORCEMENTS: Somerset added two new position players prior to Week 3: Shayne Fontana and Connor Justus. The two combined to go 3-for-6 from the plate with a double, RBI and two stolen bases in their debuts

OFF TO THE RACES: The Patriots have stolen at least three bases in each of the first five games of the series. Justin Pacchioli, Sean Guida and Scott Kelly are tied for the team lead with three steals each, while Shayne Fontana, Carlos Garcia and Dan Valerio each have swiped bags.

KISSED FROM A ROSE: Joey Rose became the first player in the SPBS to hit a home run his two-run shot in the 7/24 game

WALK IT OFF: Carlos Garcia played hero in Somerset's first win of the SPBS with a walk-off two-run single in the bottom of the eighth inning in Saturday night's 2-1 extra-inning win.

VITAL INFORMATION FOR YOUR EVERYDAY LIFE

KING KUBIAK: David Kubiak made 12 starts in Somerset in 2019 before his contract was purchased in early July. At the time of his last start in Somerset, Kubiak led the Atlantic League in wins (7), ERA (1.76), strikeouts (82), WHIP (0.92) and BAA (.173). He was also tabbed as the 2019 Liberty Division All-Star Game starting pitcher

ALL-TIME RANKS: The Long Island native currently ranks third in franchise history in ERA (3.09, min. 225 innings pitched), fifth in strikeouts (294), 11th in games started (44), 12th in wins (20) and 14th in innings (276.2). He also owns the record for most consecutive scoreless innings (33.2) which was recorded from May 10 to June 4, 2019.

HOT STARTS: Kubiak has made a habit of getting off to hot starts to begin his season. In 2019, the 6'7" righty was named the Atlantic League Pitcher of the Month in April/May for a 4-0, 0.95 ERA start to his year including three separate 10+ strikeout performances. In 2018, Kubiak went 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and a 36/4 K:BB ratio over his first five starts.

WELCOME HOME: Mazzaro, a New Jersey native, returns to the Garden State to pitch professionally for the third time in his career. He briefly tossed six shutout, one-hit innings spread across three appearances with the Patriots in 2017. The next year, Mazzaro carried a 1.76 ERA across 34 relief appearances with the New Jersey Jackals.

CLUBHOUSE VET: Mazzaro brings eight seasons of MLB service to the SOMERSET Professional Baseball Series – the most of any active player in the series. The 33-year old broke into the bigs with the Oakland A's in 2009 and posted a 24-23 record with a 4.79 ERA and one save across 140 Major League contests (45 starts).

STRONG FINISH: Mazzaro finished his 2019 season on a strong note. After beginning the year as a relief pitcher for the rival Long Island Ducks, Mazzaro turned his season around once he was plugged into the starting rotation on July 24th. The former Royals, Pirates, Marlins and Giants arm went 8-0 with a 2.15 ERA and 57 strikeouts over 58.2 innings after he transitioned back to the rotation. Additionally, Mazzaro went 3-0 in the postseason with a 1.77 ERA over three starts en route to an ALPB Championship

NOT LEIT ON SERVICE: Leiter Jr. represents the lone member of the current Somerset Patriots roster to have service time in Major League Baseball. The Toms River North HS grad made his MLB debut with the Philadelphia Phillies in 2017 and split time between the Phillies and Blue Jays in 2018. Overall, Leiter Jr. is 3-7 with a 5.53 ERA and 106 strikeouts over 114 innings across two seasons in the bigs. He tossed six shutout, three-hit innings with five strikeouts in his first MLB start (6/23/17 at Arizona Diamondbacks)

HIGHEST OF LANDERS: When Leiter Jr. was drafted in the 22nd round of the 2013 draft out of NJIT, he became the first Highlander to ever be selected in the MLB draft. He remains the program's all-time strikeouts leader. Additionally, Leiter Jr. set a single-season program record in his senior season with 106 strikeouts.

SOLID BLOODLINES: If Leiter Jr.'s name sounds familiar, it should. The Manahawkin native is the son of former MLB pitcher Mark Leiter Sr. and is the nephew of former MLB pitcher Al Leiter. Mark played 11 seasons in the Majors (1990-01) with eight different clubs, while Al played 19 seasons (1987-05) and was a 2x MLB All-Star ('96 & '00)

NOT FAR REMOVED: Leibrandt did not play professionally in 2019, but posted a 4-1 record with a 1.42 ERA and 32 strikeouts over 50.2 innings of work as a 25-year old for Triple-A Lehigh Valley (Philadelphia Phillies) in 2018. One year earlier, Leibrandt went 11-5 with a 3.62 ERA with 105 strikeouts over a career-high 136.2 innings split across 25 combined starts between Lehigh Valley and Double-A Reading

HIGH EXPECTATIONS MET: Leibrandt made a name for himself with back-to-back Georgia state championships in 2010 and 2011. After committing to Florida State University, he became the first Seminole in program history to start Opening Day as a freshman in 2012. That year, Leibrandt went 8-3 with a 2.82 ERA, led the team in innings, led the ACC in games started (third in nation) and named to a First Team Freshman All-American by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game

FATHER CHARLIE: Brandon's father, Charlie, played 14 seasons in the Majors including four years with Cincinnati, six years in Kansas City and three with Atlanta.
